10700 Series™

ICONIC DESIGN.
LASTING PERFORMANCE.

YOU-CENTRIC DESIGN

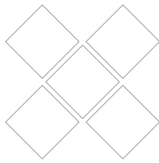

There's no such thing as the typical office. We all have different needs, which means you want a space that's totally you. Your brand. Your culture. Your work style. Get everything you want and more with the classic 10700 Series. This collection of desk essentials works together to unify your office and express your taste for refined elegance. Contoured solid wood accents. Graceful waterfall edges. Smart storage solutions. Everything working together to make 10700 your lucky number.

JUST YOUR STYLE

Private and focused. Open and collaborative. With the 10700 Series, you can enjoy whatever work style and environment you want. From inviting reception stations to versatile open plan workstations to elaborate private offices, everyone gets exactly what they need. Peninsula, L-shaped or U-shaped worksurfaces. Desk/credenza combinations. The choice is yours. When you go with 10700 Series, you get the work space and storage that help you get the job done.

MULTIFUNCTIONAL THINKING

Offices are continuing to shrink, which makes creative storage arrangements more important than ever. 10700 Series stackable storage turns wall space into valuable storage space. Go mobile with pedestals. Get personal in every workstation with modular storage. Conceal files and secure belongings with lateral files and wardrobe towers. It's easy to see how 10700 Series supports the office of tomorrow and the needs of today.

EXPRESS YOURSELF

Rich laminates. Beautiful glass. Contemporary handles. 10700 Series offers an array of material choices, giving any business culture extensive options to enhance their environment and express their brand. Select scratch-, spill- and stain-resistant high-pressure laminate in one of eight finishes. Specify post or O-legs to create a lighter aesthetic in open areas, while modesty panels increase privacy above and below the worksurface. When you've got choices like these, you're sure to get the look you want...and the quality you deserve.
